

Gammon Subsidiary lights up Pallekele International Cricket Stadium at Sri Lanka

Transrail Lighting Limited, a Gammon Group Company was awarded the Design, Manufacture, Supply and Commissioning of the Stadium Masts contract to light up the Pallekele International Cricket Stadium, Sri Lanka, host to 2011 ICC World Cup Matches (Sri Lanka-Zimbabwe on Mar. 10, and Pakistan-Zimbabwe on March 14), by prime lighting contractor M/S DiMo Engineering PLC, Srilanka (the sole Osram GmbH Associate in Sri Lanka).

Stringent International manufacturing, quality, design parameters and standards have been rigorously adhered to. Design approvals were by consultants of State Engineering Corporation of Sri Lanka. Tata Projects Limited conducted the pre-despatch third party inspections.

The mast is designed for +110 nos,of Siteco R2 Maxi Sports Luminaire. Four of these massive +55m structures were designed, manufactured and supplied within a short period of 65 days.

For further details, please contact Mr. Kailash K Agarwal CEO, Transrail Lighting Limited.

Mobile: 9004054554